

BACHELOR OF MANAGEMENT STUDIES

PROGRAMME OUTCOMES

Students who complete BMS program will be able to:

1. Develop basic understanding of management education and practices that can be applied in present day global scenario.
2. Gain knowledge and skills to exploit opportunities in management profession.
3. Appreciate the interrelationships among functional areas of management.
4. Understand the importance of multicultural, ethnic, ethical and gender issues in the organization
5. Demonstrate professionalism, self-awareness, and effective communication skills.
6. Exhibit leadership capacity and teamwork skills that enable them to work effectively in groups
7. Develop comprehensive analytical and problem-solving skills.
8. Have innovation skills and ability to take up entrepreneurship initiatives
9. Understand the ethical implication of business decision making
10. Apply their knowledge in the field of business management to contribute to nation building while upholding ethical practices.
